Disability Inclusion

What do we mean by disability?

Persons with disabilities include those who have long-term physical, mental, intellectual, or sensory impairments which in interaction with various barriers may hinder their full and effective participation in society on an equal basis with others

Cambodia Initiative for Disability Inclusion (CIDI)

Disability Inclusion

What do we mean by inclusion?

Inclusion is to remove the barriers that exclude people with disability and their participation from the society.

OVERCOMING OBSTACLES requires an INTEGRATED APPROACH

MAJOR BARRIERS

NO ENTRY

FULL PARTICIPATION

lack of rehabilitation and equipment

physical barriers

attitudinal barriers

Cambodia Initiative for Disability Inclusion (CIDI)

- Formerly known as the Landmine Survivor Assistance Program (LSAP) 2007-2010

- 2.5 year program extension to Dec 2012 AusAID funded ARC managed program

Cambodia Initiative for Disability Inclusion (CIDI)

The importance of a name

- The shift from 'landmines survivors' to an 'initiative for disability inclusion' represents an important re-positioning of the initiative
- It is an evolving process
- Embraces wider issues around disability – social, inclusion, empowerment, rights
- Forward thinking

Cambodia Initiative for Disability Inclusion (CIDI)

Program goal

Improve the quality of life of people with disabilities in Cambodia by supporting national efforts towards addressing the risks, causes and consequences of disability.
